New York Stock Market

New York, January 20,—Yesterday's disorderly break in prices of stocks proved to be the culmitration of the downward movement of prices for the cownward movement of prices for the time. There was a period of upheaval early to-day as the sequel of the anxiety growing out of the business embarrassments of yesterday, and one more failure was announced, that if the specialist upon whom fell the brunt of the wild market yesterday in Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron.

if the specialist upon whom fell the brunt of the wild market yesterday in Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron.

By the time the failure was announced, the cleaning-up process was practically completed, and the way had been paved for the vigorous recovery which Followed. The hears made another stand to dominate the market, and a fierce contest was waged during the whole of the first hour of the market. The vuinerability of one or two stocks had a sympathetic effect on the whole list, and a short period of general weakness intervened. Sufficient obstacles to a further decline were encountered to turn prices upwards again.

Bsides the over-extended short interest in the local market, a substantial factor towards recovery was the improved monetary and investment situation in foreign markets. An investment demand was thus stimulated, and American securities got part of the beneat of it. Buying of stocks for London account was an influential factor in the day's market here.

Commission houses with membership in the Stock Exchange were, agreed that an investment demand from Democratic capital was developed also by the more inviting level of prices for stocks established by the recent break. The bargain hunter made his appearance in brokers' office, attracted by the signs of sacrifice selling of stocks in yesterday's market. The declaration of an initial dividend on the common stock of New York, Chicago and St. Louis and the increase in the Cambria Steel divided were incentives to the hopes of investment holders and buyers of stocks. The forn and steel trade reports and returns of railroad earnings helped this feeling.

Buying was going on actively at the highest prices of the day when the day's session ended.

CAPITAL ONE MILLION DOLLARS

A TRUE STORY.

A TRUE STORY.

A gentleman died, leaving his estate to his wife and child. She qualified as guardian for the only son. An improvident brother of the deceased, and a good man, soon applied to the widow to endorse his note in bank. One of the best women on earth, but inexperienced in business, she placed her name on the note.

Sequel.—She had it to pay, and it took all but the home.

Moral.—Save your wife the fearful responsibility of caring for your estate, and remember that this strong Trust Company is better equipped to act as your Executor and Trustee than any individual. A request on a postal will bring our booklet on trusts.

TAFT STOOD FOR LEWIS

Despite Organization's Indorsement
Groner Could Not Win Out.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, D. C., January 20.—The more one knows of the fight for the district attorneyship the more interesting does the appointment of Judge L.
L. Lewis become. The State organization had indorsed and urged D. Lawrence Groner, and the Department of Justice had accepted him, but President Taft took the buil by the horns and named Judge Lewis. Wade H. Ellis.
assistant Attorney-General, was a classmate at Washington and Lee with Groner, and, it is understood, had recommended him.
